Starring Cha In-pyo, Crossing is a heart-wrenching tale about a North Korean coal miner who crosses the border into China to obtain medicine for his ill wife, and his son's journey to be reunited with him. Based on a true story, Crossing gives a glimpse of the impoverished and oppressed life of everyday North Koreans. After the film screening, join us for a Q&A session with Kim Seong-min, founder and director of Free North Korea Radio. Mr. Kim will talk about life in North Korea, his defection to South Korea in 1999, and how FNKR is trying to bring about change in his country.

*Film is 105 minutes, in Korean with English subtitles. Q&A will be conducted in Chinese and Korean.

Co-organized by:

U.S. Committee for Human Rights in North Korea
Taiwan Foundation for Democracy
